

Friends and Family Test Results, Humberstone Medical Centre - November 2023

After you have completed your appointment at Humberstone Medical Centre, whether telephone consultation or face to face consultation, you will be asked to give your feedback via text message. Providing feedback is voluntary, but if you do answer your feedback will let staff know that their efforts have been appreciated and also enables the practice to identify opportunities to make improvements.

Scan the QR code to rate Humberstone Medical Centre for friends and family review for the Month of December 2023

